

Local & Regional Regulations

Special Regulations

Inver Grove Heights

Inspections are not required when selling or buying existing property unless a change of type of occupancy is occurring (ie: home into office). All new construction is required to be permitted and inspected and have a Certificate of Occupancy. Point-of-Sale inspections are required on homes that have septic systems.