

Local & Regional Regulations

Point of Sale Program

Maplewood

A Truth-in-Housing inspection is required prior to listing or showing of a property. The evaluation form should be present in the house when showings are conducted. The city requires that the inspections be done by someone who is licensed by the city as a housing/building evaluator. City inspection is required for any building/construction requiring a building permit. Certificate of occupancy is required for all new construction.